STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The passing of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, and the establishment of a High Court in the North-Western Provinces with original testamentary and intestate jurisdiction, have had serious effects on the office of the Administrator General. Until lately, for instance, whenever a British subject died leaving assets, not only within the jurisdiction of the High Court at Fort William, but in the Punjab, Oudh, or the Central Provinces, and the executor or next-of-kin has not acted, the estate has been dealt with by the Administrator General of Bengal. When the assets were out of the jurisdiction, the local judicial authorities sold the property and remitted the proceeds to his office in Calcutta, thus enabling him to administer. The fact of the High Court at Fort William being the only Court in the Bengal Presidency and the Non-Regulation Provinces subordinate thereto, which had testamentary and intestate jurisdiction, greatly increased the number of estates which came into his office.

Under the Indian Succession Act all District Courts possess testamentary and intestate jurisdiction, and executors or next-of-kin, being able to obtain probate or administration on the spot, are adopting and will doubtless generally adopt that course instead of resorting to the Administrators General. This is causing those Officers a serious loss of income, and the loss is likely to become greater. It is true that the Succession Act reserves the rights and privileges of the Administrators General; but at the same time the provisions of that Act diminish the value of those rights and privileges.

The office of Administrator General is of much utility, not only for protecting and winding up estates when the parties entitled are at a distance, but also for administering insolvent and complicated estates when relatives and agency houses would decline to act. Moreover, it has been and ought to be a source of considerable revenue to Government as a medium for collecting the assets of escheated estates, and of estates which are paid over as unclaimed for fifteen years.

Under these circumstances the present Bill proposes to re-place, practically, the Administrators General in the position which they occupied before and at the passing of the Succession Act, and to declare that, so far as regards those Officers, the High Courts at the Presidency Towns shall be deemed to be Courts of competent jurisdiction within the meaning of Sections 187 and 190 of that Act, wheresoever within the Presidency the property to be comprised in the probate or letters of administration may be situate. The effect of this provision, taken with the definition of 'Presidency of Bengal' contained in Section 2 of the Bill, will be that the High Court at Fort William may grant to the Administrator General of Bengal letters of administration in respect of assets situate in Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, Oudh, the Central Provinces, and British Burmah, and that such letters will authorize him to collect assets throughout the whole of these territories. In the same way, letters of administration granted by the High Coart of Madras to the Administrator General of Madras, will authorize him to collect assets throughout the Presidency of Fort St. George, and (in the case of British subjects) Mysore, Coorg, and the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. Letters of administration granted to the Administrator General of Bombay, will have a similar effect as regards assets in that Presidency.

The opportunity has been taken of repealing and re-enacting, with certain desirable amendments in wording, arrangement, and substance, the six Acts and parts of Acts in which the law relating to the Administrator General is now comprised. The following are the chief amendments here referred to:—

The Administrator General's authority under Act VIII of 1855, Section 11, extends to the estates of all 'British subjects' leaving assets within the Presidency; but as to persons not being Muhammadans, Hindús or 'British subjects,' he cannot interfere unless they leave assets within the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court; the reason being that over the latter class the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the late Supreme Courts did not extend unless there were assets within the local limits. The present Bill (Sections 16 and 34) proposes to extend the Administrator General's authority to the estates of all persons, not being Hindús, Muhammadans or Buddhists, who die leaving assets exceeding five hundred Rupees within the Presidency. His authority will thus be co-extensive with the jurisdiction conferred by the Succession Act on the District Courts.

Provision has been made (Section 29) for the grant of probate of wills in which the Administrator General shall be named as executor by virtue of his office; and Section 30 has been introduced to enable a legal representative to divest himself of his office and be re-placed by the Administrator General, if he will consent to act; this will meet the requirements of legal representatives who may be obliged to leave India before the completion of their duties, or who have found those duties irksome.

The Administrator General may now be sued in any District Court within the jurisdiction of which the deceased used to reside or may have entered into a contract, and the Administrator General cannot institute an administration suit, and thus stay the proceedings of the plaintiff. With a view to confining suits against the Administrator General to the High Courts, and of thus relieving the estates in his charge from the expense to which they are needlessly subject under the present system, the Bill provides (Section 33) that if any suit shall be brought against that Officer in any Court other than the High Court in the Presidency Town, the plaintiff shall be liable to pay the costs of the suit, and shall not be entitled to have the decree enforced, unless he has applied to the Administrator General, stating the amount of the claim and supporting it by such evidence as, under the circumstances of the case, the Administrator General was reasonably entitled to require.

The Bill proposes (Section 34) to empower the Administrator General to grant certificates in cases where letters of administration of the effects of the deceased have not been taken out for one month after his death. The restriction imposed by Act VIII of 1855, Section 48, of waiting three months after the death tends to destroy the benefit of the provision.

The following Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it are published for general information by order of His Excellency the Governor General, under the 19th of the Rules for the conduct of Business at Meetings of the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations:—

A Bill to empower Courts of Small Causes in the Majussil to refer for decision questions arising in the execution of decrees.

Whereas it is expedient to enable the Courts constituted under Act No. XI of 1865 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the ordinary original Civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature) to refer for the decision of the High Court within whose jurisdiction they may respectively be situate questions of law or usage having the force of law arising in the execution of decrees in suits under the said Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. If in the execution of the decree in any suit under the said Act any Power to refer to High Question of law, or usage the execution of decrees. The Court, in suits for an amount not exceeding five hundred Rupees, may, either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the suit, and in suits for an amount greater than five hundred Rupees shall draw up a statement of the case and refer it with the Court's own opinion thereon to the decision of the High Court within whose jurisdiction such Court may be situate; and the execution of the decree shall be stayed until the receipt of the order of the High Court upon such reference.

2. This Act shall be read with and taken as part of Act No. XI of 1865;
This Act to be read with and the provisions contained in Sections 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 of that Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to cases referred under this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 22 of Act No. XI of 1865, which consolidates and amends the law relating to the Mofussil Courts of Small Causes, empowers these Courts to refer to a superior Court questions of law or construction arising in the trial of suits under the Act. But it has been doubted whether there is power to refer this class of questions when they arise in the execution of the decree. The present Bill, which has been framed at the desire of the Government of the North-West Provinces, and at the instance of the High Court, precludes such doubts, by expressly giving the power last mentioned.
